

TECH • AI • CYBERSECURITY

1. Cyber Op Targets South Korean Media & Automotive Sectors

A likely North Korean advanced persistent threat (APT) group used a previously undocumented Linux espionage toolkit to compromise load balancers, gain access to communications, and further exploit networks.

Source: darkreading

2. We don't need AI regulation — leave safety to us, Nvidia's Jensen Huang says

AI isn't some new form of "alien mind," according to Jensen Huang. It's just hardware and software, so safety can be engineered by each AI product maker.

Source: AI News & Artificial Intelligence | TechCrunch

3. AI and data centers are incredibly unpopular in every poll

Poll data released Tuesday by the New York Times and Siena University confirms what we've already been seeing, and what politicians are responding to - AI and data centers are incredibly unpopular. Asked if they support or oppose the construction of data centers to power AI tech, 61 percent of the 1,503 likely voters surveyed [...]

Source: AI | The Verge

4. The AI data center boom is colliding with cities scarred by big industry

National outcry against data center construction has spread to Philadelphia, where officials suggested possible construction in a neighborhood already impacted by a now-defunct oil refinery.

Source: AI News & Artificial Intelligence | TechCrunch

5. Acronis warns of actively exploited flaw in its cPanel backup plugin

Acronis disclosed a high-severity Linux local privilege escalation vulnerability in its backup plugin for cPanel, WebHost Manager (WHM), and Plesk that may be exploited in the wild. [...]

Source: BleepingComputer

INDIA — 5 TRENDING STORIES

1. ED arrests Kolkata man in land grabbing-linked PMLA case

Amit Ganguly is alleged to have acquired control over properties belonging to different persons and entities through the use of "forged" board resolutions, fabricated agreements

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

2. 'PM has redefined NOTA — Narendra's Ongoing Trump Appeasement': Congress after UPI move

Jairam Ramesh asked whether the government's move on MDR was done to enable U.S. card companies to compete with UPI

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

3. How BJP will celebrate Modi's birthday: Month-long Seva Sankalp Abhiyan from September 17 to mark 25 years as administrator

Prime Minister Narendra Modi turns 76 on September 17

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

4. Mukulam portal to ensure equal opportunities for students in entrance tests: Keralam Minister

Mukulam will provide higher secondary and vocational higher secondary students free AI-based training to prepare them for entrance tests such as NEET, JEE CUET, KVPY and for admission to IISER

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

5. MLA's niece removed from government job after revelation of being full-time PG student in medical college

Media reports highlighted the fact that she is the daughter of Rajkumar Yaragal, the District Health Officer (DHO), and the niece of Umesh Meti, an MLA and a Congress leader

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

WORLD — 5 TRENDING STORIES

1. US limits visas for South African officials over alleged anti-white discrimination

Secretary of State Marco Rubio says South Africa has not addressed US concerns over racial inequality.

Source: BBC News

2. Al-Qaida and IS-linked violence in Africa's Sahel belt set to hit record levels this year

Twenty-five years after 9/11, figures compiled by conflict monitor underline how Sahel region has become centre of Islamist terror. Islamist extremist violence in Africa's Sahel region is set to reach historic highs after a series of sweeping offensives by groups linked to al-Qaida and Islamic State, according to new figures compiled...

Source: World news | The Guardian

3. US House votes to end Iran war, 7 Republicans join in favour

For a third time, the US House approved a war powers resolution, halting Trump's ability to continue military action.

Source: Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera

4. Seoul court orders North Korea to pay $32.5m for blowing up office

Pyongyang blew up the Inter-Korean Liaison Office building in June 2020 after days of rising tensions.

Source: Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera

5. What's the Pinglu Canal, China's new gateway to Southeast Asia?

China's first modern river-to-sea canal could significantly cut down time and costs of trade to Southeast Asia.

Source: Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera