TECH • AI • CYBERSECURITY

1. Amazon has a plan to index the world’s online shopping data

Amazon has plans to build a vault of data on every product sold anywhere on the internet, even products Amazon doesn't sell, and make the information available through its own site, according to Reuters. The project, called the "World Product Graph," is meant to make it less likely that shoppers leave Amazon to do their […]

Source: AI | The Verge

2. Jensen Huang’s departure blasts big hole in AI startup funding, VCs and founders say

Nvidia poured tens of billions into AI startups under Huang. Without him at the helm, founders and VCs are bracing for smaller checks and lower valuations.

Source: AI News & Artificial Intelligence | TechCrunch

3. ChatGPT Wallet lets OpenAI’s Dots agents make purchases for you

After launching its Dots AI agents platform earlier this year, OpenAI is launching a wallet for the agents. ChatGPT Wallet is rolling out starting today for ChatGPT Pro subscribers in the US aged 18 and older using a US billing address and "eligible US-issued American Express, Chase, Mastercard and Visa cards." After adding a card […]

Source: AI | The Verge

4. ArcticRAT Cybercrime Gang Profiles Victim Finances With AI

The Android malware has expanded from focusing on crypto theft to full device control, and the attackers have added advanced analysis of stolen information.

Source: darkreading

5. Trezor confirms crypto-stealing implants in three wallets, releases fix

Cryptocurrency hardware wallet maker Trezor has confirmed that three Safe 5 devices sold by Southeast Asian reseller CryptoBilis contained malicious hardware implants designed to steal wallet recovery phrases and send them to attackers over cellular networks. [...]

Source: BleepingComputer

INDIA — 5 TRENDING STORIES

1. BJP-led Thiruvananthapuram Corporation denies permission for cultural event at Manaveeyam Veedhi

Activists say permission for a cultural programme at Manaveeyam Veedhi featuring singer Pushpavathy was sought well in advance on November 3. They accuse the Mayor of curbing freedom of expression.

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

2. PWD gets ■2.68 crore to fortify three rehabilitation sites for Vallarpadam project evictees

The amount has been credited to the official bank account of the PWD Executive Engineer from the funds deposited by the Cochin Port Authority (CoPA) in the district collector’s account for the rehabilitation of the evicted families

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

3. Two booked for forcing Jharkhand Congress MLA’s minor domestic help to level ‘false’ rape charges against him

The girl told reporters that she was brought to Ranchi by the MLA's family in May on the promise of being enrolled in a school, but was instead made to do domestic work at his official residence

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

4. Children’s Day 2026: Tamil Nadu CM Vijay launches distribution of cakes, greeting cards and sweet pongal to school students

It is a first-of-its-kind initiative in Tamil Nadu

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

5. Sanskrit varsity ‘mock funeral’ row: Pinarayi Vijayan alleges conspiracy by ex-Governor Arlekar, V-C against SFI activists

Opposition Leader says Arlekar, ‘who has always implemented the wishes of RSS’, played a key role in coming up with 'a lie' that protesting SFI students held a mock funeral of the V-C

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

WORLD — 5 TRENDING STORIES

1. What we know about the longest ground stop since 9/11

US officials say the disruption was caused by old equipment overloading and not a cyber-attack.

Source: BBC News

2. Reijnder’s hat-trick fires Dutch to 7-0 rout of Greece, Germany beat Serbia

Netherlands' 7-0 annihilation of Greece means the Germans will likely need to win on Monday to reach the quarterfinals.

Source: Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera

3. Protesters heckle Hakeem Jeffries at Democratic conference

US House Minority Leader Hakeem Jeffries faced repeated heckling at a Democratic conference in Denver.

Source: Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera

4. The ANC’s implosion was decades in the making

Zuma squandered Mbeki’s gains, while Ramaphosa’s dithering turned the ANC’s promised renewal into a fight for survival.

Source: Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera

5. Southeast Asian leaders to meet as Trump visit highlights trade disruption

ASEAN summit comes as US president embarks on Asia trip that will see him meet China's Xi.

Source: Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera