TECH • AI • CYBERSECURITY

1. Low-Cost Android Phones Ship With Preinstalled Malware That Turns Them Into Residential Proxies

Low-cost Android smartphones have been shipped with malicious software baked into the device firmware, allowing bad actors to covertly install apps, conduct ad fraud, and turn devices into residential proxies. The activity, which targets Android devices built on MediaTek platforms across several brands, is being tracked by Bitdefender...

Source: The Hacker News

2. Maximum-Severity SSRF Flaw in SonicWall SMA Devices Under Attack

Attackers are currently targeting a critical vulnerability in SMA 1000 appliances, putting SonicWall customers in a familiar yet unenviable position.

Source: darkreading

3. Norway fines Microsoft ad firm $9.6 million over Grindr data sharing

Norway's Data Protection Authority (Datatilsynet) has fined Microsoft-owned advertising company Xandr NOK 92 million ($9.6M) for unlawfully processing and sharing sensitive data belonging to Grindr users in the country. [...]

Source: BleepingComputer

4. Prominent Ransomware Negotiator Faces Extortion Charges

Edward Dubrovsky, a longtime cybersecurity executive, was arrested and charged in Pennsylvania last week under conspiracy to extort money.

Source: darkreading

5. Yandex confirms service outage as users lose access to cloud files

Russian cloud services provider Yandex announced that drone attacks damaged three of its data centers, forcing it to shut down two facilities and partially disable a third. [...]

Source: BleepingComputer

INDIA — 5 TRENDING STORIES

1. Tyeb Mehta’s ‘Rickshaw Puller’ sells for ■69.1 crore

The acrylic on canvas dates from 2002, in the final decade of Mehta’s career, and depicts the rickshaw puller, a figure he returned to in his later work

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

2. Delhi SIR: 60% notice cases verified; disposal gains pace amid reduced scrutiny, norms

The sudden spike in the rate of notice disposal follows the introduction of new options on the ECINET portal and fresh oral directions from Gyanesh Kumar’s office to expedite the process and prevent wrongful deletions

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

3. Supreme Court stays defamation case proceedings against Rahul Gandhi over 2019 remarks against PM

A Bench of Justices Vikram Nath and Aparesh Kumar Singh issued notices to the Maharashtra government and the complainant, M H. Shrishrimal, seeking their responses in four weeks

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

4. SC refuses to entertain plea for CBI probe into sale of tickets by UP-based political parties

The Supreme Court asked the petitioner to approach the Election Commission instead, after the Allahabad High Court had earlier declined to entertain the same plea

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

5. Madras High Court prevents unauthorised exhibition of Rajinikanth-starrer Jailer 2 and Shivarajkumar’s Bail

Justice P.B. Balaji passes the interim injunction orders on individual copyright infringement suits filed by Sun TV Network Limited and KVN Productions LLP

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

WORLD — 5 TRENDING STORIES

1. Breaking Bad actor RJ Mitte dies aged 34

Mitte, who lived with cerebral palsy, starred as Walter White Jr in the Emmy-winning drama series.

Source: BBC News

2. Emergency calls from botched Christa Pike execution released to US media

A series of calls, obtained by the Associated Press, reveal emergency services were delayed in reaching Pike.

Source: BBC News

3. Drone attack sinks ship off Bulgaria’s Black Sea coast, PM says

Two ships were hit in the attack, including the Ukrainian-owned Chelsea 3, which sustained damage.

Source: Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera

4. India 'cockroach' leaders detained after entering barricaded protest site

Protesters climbed over barricades in central Delhi to demand the election chief resign over revised voter lists.

Source: BBC News

5. At Least 6 Injured in Stabbing in South Korea

The police in the city of Incheon said they had arrested one man and were investigating his motive.

Source: NYT > World News