

TECH • AI • CYBERSECURITY

1. Old, Unpatched Flaws Give Attackers Access to Philippines Nuclear Agency

Threat actors exploited commodity in ownCloud to gain initial access, resulting in stolen reactor databases, personnel records, and credential stores.

Source: darkreading

2. Google needs Hollywood more than the studios need AI

Google has reportedly been reaching out to a number of Hollywood's biggest studios, hoping to strike licensing agreements that would allow it to train its AI models on copyrighted material in exchange for massive piles of cash. In theory, these deals would be a win-win: a huge financial boon to the studios that would also [...]

Source: AI | The Verge

3. FBI Probes Service Selling 153M+ Drivers Licenses

A new identity theft service launched on the dark web this week is selling digital scans of more than 153 million drivers licenses from people in the United States and Canada. Based on interviews with individuals whose licenses are available for purchase on this service, it appears to be siphoning images collected by a widely-used...

Source: Krebs on Security

4. AfterQuery reportedly becomes Y Combinator's fastest-ever unicorn, now valued at $3.2B

AI model-training startup AfterQuery has reportedly raised a round that valued it at $3.2 billion, just five months after announcing its $30 million Series A at a $300 million valuation in April.

Source: AI News & Artificial Intelligence | TechCrunch

5. Anthropic launches Claude Fable 5.1 and says it's up to 45 percent cheaper for agentic work

Anthropic says its newest AI models, Fable 5.1 and Mythos 5.1, address criticisms from customers about price, data retention, and overzealous safeguards. The company claims Claude Fable 5.1 offers stronger performance than Fable 5, but costs around 25 percent less typically and up to 45 percent less for complex agentic tasks, thanks...

Source: AI | The Verge

INDIA — 5 TRENDING STORIES

1. Wild elephant electrocuted in Chittoor district; Pawan Kalyan orders inquiry

The elephant came into contact with wires connected to a farm pump on Monday night; Deputy Chief Minister asked for power lines in wildlife areas to be kept at safe heights

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

2. Smuggled liquor, bullets seized from rented house in Kozhikode district

The man who took the house on rent has been taken into custody

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

3. Wayanad monsoon crisis: rainfall deficit hits 37% amid El Niño impact

Wayanad recorded an average of just 1,391 mm of rainfall between June 1 and August 31, which is nearly 37% lesser than the seasonal average of 2,200 mm the district receives during this period

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

4. Tribal communities are guardians of nature and ancient wisdom, says Pawan Kalyan

In a social media post, the Deputy Chief Minister said this year's theme honoured indigenous midwives, and cited Adavi Thalli Baata and improved connectivity to remote habitations among the government's measures for tribal welfare

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

5. JSP to unveil youth wing name, logo in Pithapuram on September 2, marking Pawan Kalyan's birthday

Party will guarantee an active role for youth at every level and groom them into committed leaders, says PAC chairman Nadendla Manohar

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

WORLD — 5 TRENDING STORIES

1. Almost half of world's farmers poisoned by pesticides every year, experts find

Study reveals that pesticide poisoning kills 11,000 people each year, with India accounting for nearly 60% of fatalities. Almost half of the world's farmers are poisoned by pesticides every single year, a study has found. Using publicly available data from 2006-2023, the study, which was commissioned by Pesticide Action Network, found...

Source: World news | The Guardian

2. South Korea jails disabled care home head for sexually assaulting residents

The man, surnamed Kim, was handed a 15-year prison term for abusing three residents at the facility near Seoul.

Source: BBC News

3. Palestinian artist Saint Levant delays tour amid US visa complications

Visa cancellations or delays have forced international artists to rethink US tours under President Donald Trump.

Source: Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera

4. Iran attacks US bases in Middle East after reports US strike killed five at wedding party

The Iranian Red Crescent says a child was among those killed when shrapnel from a US strike hit a home. The US military says it is aware of the reports and it never targets civilians.

Source: BBC News

5. Syria's restrained approach to Israel carries risks

Damascus's restraint could encourage more Israeli encroachment and lose the trust of the Syrian public.

Source: Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera