TECH • AI • CYBERSECURITY

1. Anthropic's Claude Fable 5.2 Beats GPT-6 Cyber in Multi-Stage Cyberattack Benchmark

Anthropic on Monday released Claude Fable 5.2 and Claude Mythos 5.2 models, which it said exhibit improvements in coding, reasoning, and vision. During pre-release training, the large language models (LLMs) helped its engineers "complete otherwise-infeasible software migrations, designed three working electronic devices from scratch,...

Source: The Hacker News

2. Fireworks AI discloses new breach after cloud provider hack

AI infrastructure startup Fireworks has disclosed a new security breach in which attackers accessed its development machines after breaching a third-party cloud provider. [...]

Source: BleepingComputer

3. Otter AI can now follow conversations across 30+ languages

Otter AI just added support for 27 languages and revealed an upcoming feature that can follow along if speakers switch between languages.

Source: AI News & Artificial Intelligence | TechCrunch

4. Security Flaws Across UK Government Sites Exposed ‘God-Tier’ Information

A researcher’s trawl through publicly available code found private information was at risk across multiple departments.

Source: Feed: Artificial Intelligence Latest

5. Google Issues Chrome Security Update for Eighth Actively Exploited Zero-Day of 2026

Google on Monday released updates to patch nine security vulnerabilities, including one that has come under active exploitation in the wild. The high-severity vulnerability, assigned the CVE identifier CVE-2026-125350 (CVSS score: N/A), has been described as a use-after-free bug in the XML component. Use-after-free bugs typically...

Source: The Hacker News

INDIA — 5 TRENDING STORIES

1. Farmers demand uniform ■4,200 sugarcane rate across Maharashtra

The delegation demanded a ■2 lakh incentive grant for farmers who regularly repay their loans and ■1 lakh per hectare in financial assistance for drought-affected cultivators

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

2. Former DMK Minister Anbil Mahesh’s bail plea dismissed

Anbil Mahesh was arrested on October 26 and remanded in judicial custody till November 18

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

3. Hyderabad gears up for Chhath Puja from November 13-16, 2026

Bihar Association urges civic bodies to make arrangements with focus on sanitation and hygiene. Telangana government has directed civic bodies and disaster management authorities to facilitate Chhath Puja at 28 locations across Hyderabad.

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

4. Pannun’s civil lawsuit: U.S. State department formally serves notice to India

The State Department said it was legally obliged to do so and is not taking a position on the case

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

5. Sonia Gandhi trying to justify Emergency, memoir should've been named ‘Whitewashing’: BJP

The comments from the ruling party came on the day Sonia Gandhi’s memoir was released, in which she weighed in on the Emergency imposed in the country in 1975 and called it a mistake

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

WORLD — 5 TRENDING STORIES

1. DR Congo sentences 66 soldiers to death for being 'cowards'

The Congolese army's fight against rebel groups has long been hampered by disarray within its ranks.

Source: BBC News

2. Trump says FBI investigating Nvidia boss's affair with alleged Chinese spy

The US president said he spoke with Jensen Huang on Monday and asked him about the affair with the alleged spy.

Source: BBC News

3. US moves aircraft from second UK base over ‘threat from Iran’

Two refuelling tankers and several other aircraft diverted from RAF Mildenhall airbase ■to other locations, WSJ reports.

Source: Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera

4. Ukraine peace talks resume with 'some flexibility' by warring sides, US officials say

Kyiv, Washington and Moscow are all sending delegation to the United Arab Emirates for the first trilateral talks since February.

Source: BBC News

5. Saudi Arabia Sentences Mother to 100 Lashes for Birth Outside Marriage

The kingdom’s promised reforms don’t always match the realities of its justice system. Unmarried women, particularly foreign workers, face unique perils.

Source: NYT > World News