TECH • AI • CYBERSECURITY

1. Nvidia’s crisis has corporate governance experts reaching for the popcorn

The governance experts we talked to say nobody has seen anything like what's unfolding right now.

Source: AI News & Artificial Intelligence | TechCrunch

2. Cisco BroadWorks and Openwave Flaws Actively Exploited Despite Available Patches

The U.S. Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency (CISA) Tuesday added two security flaws impacting Cisco BroadWorks and Openwave Messaging Webtop Media Transcoder to its Known Exploited Vulnerabilities (KEV) catalog, citing evidence of active exploitation. Details of the vulnerabilities are below - CVE-2026-20320 (CVSS score:...

Source: The Hacker News

3. November Patch Tuesday: An Overflowing Cornucopia of CVEs

Microsoft serves up an actively exploited Outlook zero-day, and a wave of critical Exchange, SharePoint, Windows Search, and LDAP bugs that exhausted defenders need to prioritize fast.

Source: darkreading

4. Railway breach leads to $740,000 in fraudulent AI charges

Cloud hosting provider Railway says hackers exploited vulnerabilities in its infrastructure to steal customer authentication secrets and generate approximately $740,000 in fraudulent AI usage, potentially exposing credentials for up to 100,000 workspaces. [...]

Source: BleepingComputer

5. Microsoft Fixes Nearly 1,100 Security Vulnerabilities

Microsoft did another four-digit patch drop today, releasing updates to fix almost 1,100 security vulnerabilities in its Windows operating systems and supported software. This month's Patch Tuesday addresses 63 critical flaws -- including a zero-day in Microsoft Outlook -- and comes amid important security updates from other software...

Source: Krebs on Security

INDIA — 5 TRENDING STORIES

1. Karnataka education officials asked to evaluate pros and cons of cluster kitchen system for midday meals

This would relieve teachers of midday meal responsibilities and enable them to focus on teaching, the association has argued

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

2. Woman, minor boy allegedly killed 15-year-old

No summary available.

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

3. Illegal oocyte collection racket: 27 ART centres inspected across Telangana, notices issued to seven hospitals

The investigation also includes examining the involvement of women identified in connection with the case, doctors, IVF centres and intermediaries allegedly facilitating the activities

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

4. Retired judge Justice M.V. Muralidharan appointed chairperson of Tamil Nadu SC/ST Commission

The post of chairperson of the Tamil Nadu State Commission for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes remained vacant since March 22, following the demise of retired judge S. Tamilvanan.

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

5. Vijayasai Reddy launches Parivartana Rajaneethi Party, vows to end ‘two-family’ politics in Andhra

The former YSRCP leader says he will mentor young leaders as Bal Thackeray and Kanshi Ram did, and that his Parivartana Rajaneethi Party will contest all 175 Andhra Assembly seats

Source: India Latest News: Top National Headlines Today & Breaking News | The Hindu

WORLD — 5 TRENDING STORIES

1. Students run for safety after fireworks set off inside French school

Video captures the moment students and staff ran for safety as fireworks were set off along a school corridor in France.

Source: Page 2 – Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera

2. Chinese university buys Nvidia AI H200 chips despite US ban, records show

Investigation reveals Chinese entities accessing US-restricted AI tech despite stringent export control measures.

Source: Page 2 – Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera

3. Is Washington rethinking its relationship with Israel?

The midterms exposed a growing challenge to decades of US support for Israel, with potentially lasting consequences.

Source: Page 2 – Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera

4. If hackers can take over a supermarket fridge, what else is at risk?

As our lives become more digitised, we show which smart systems can be hacked and how to protect yourself.

Source: Page 2 – Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera

5. Netanyahu fights to stay relevant as Israel’s opposition closes in

A new Knesset shaped by October 7 prepares to convene as Netanyahu fights to prevent an opposition-led government

Source: Page 2 – Al Jazeera – Breaking News, World News and Video from Al Jazeera